Grey, Henry, tenth earl of Kent (bap. 1594, d. 1651), parliamentarian nobleman, was baptized at Burbage, Leicestershire, on 23 November 1594, the eldest son of Anthony Grey (1557–1643), rector of Aston Flamville, Leicestershire, and of Magdalene Purefoy (1579–1653), daughter of William Purefoy of Caldecote, Warwickshire. His father succeeded to the earldom of Kent in 1639, on the death without surviving male issue of the eighth earl, a distant cousin. Some authorities refer to Henry Grey as the ninth earl. He would appear to have matriculated at Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, in 1611, taking his BA degree in 1615. A year later, on 31 January 1616, he was admitted to Gray's Inn.
